By-Laws

OF

The Victoria Skating and Curling Association of Toronto

OBJECTS

1. The Victoria Skating and Curling Association of Toronto, Limited, is established as an association of gentlemen desiring to enjoy the social advantages of a club without political bias, and to engage in and provide summer and winter recreations.

Politics and religious questions of every kind are excluded from discussion in the Association.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

2. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of the Association shall be held at the Club house, at such time and place in the month of December in each year as the Directors may by resolution appoint. Notice of the time and place of holding such meetings, or any special meeting as hereinafter provided, shall be given at least ten days previously thereto in some newspaper published in the City of Toronto, and shall be posted in the Club house.

3. The Shareholders at such meeting shall elect a Board of Directors, consisting of ten members, and a House Committee of five members for the ensuing year, and transact all such general business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

4. The Board of Directors may at any time and, upon a requisition made in writing by ten shareholders and delivered to the Secretary stating the object for which the meeting is to be called, shall convene a special general meeting of the shareholders to transact the business set out in the notice calling such meeting.

5. At all annual and special meetings of Shareholders ten Shareholders shall form a quorum.

6. Shareholders may vote by proxy, but the person acting as proxy must be a Shareholder. All proxies must be filed with the Secretary not later than the day previous to the meeting.

7. Every Shareholder shall at all meetings of the Shareholders be entitled to one vote for every share held by him, but no Shareholder shall be entitled to vote on any matter whatever unless all calls due on the stock held by him have been paid.

DIRECTORS

8. The Directors must be Shareholders absolutely in their own right. holding at all times during their term of office not less than one hundred shares of the capital stock of the Association and not in arrear in respect of any calls thereon. In the event of any casual vacancy in the Board occurring, the remaining Directors, so long as a quorum of Directors remains in office, may fill such vacancy.

9. The election of Directors shall be by ballot. The President or the presiding officer at the annual meeting shall appoint two scrutineers, who shall open the polls and count the ballots, and the ten Shareholders having the greatest number of votes shall be declared to be Directors, and shall enter upon their duties forthwith after their election and shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

10. The Directors shall elect a President and Vice-President from amongst their number. The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside as Chairman at every meeting of the Association; and in the absence of both the meeting shall elect a Chairman.

11. The Directors shall have the entire supervision of the affairs of the Association and shall prescribe such rules and regulations for regulating the internal and domestic affairs and conduct of the Association, as in their judgment may from time to time be necessary and proper.

12. They shall, from time to time, appoint a Secretary-Treasurer, a Steward and such other officers, clerks and servants as may be deemed necessary for the proper working and carrying on of the business of the Association in all its branches, and may suspend or remove them from their respective offices for dereliction of duty or other cause.

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

13. Meetings of the Directors shall be called by the Secretary at any time on the request of the President, Vice-President or two of the Directors. Notice of any meeting shall be mailed by the Secretary to each Director not less than twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the meeting, but a meeting of the Directors may be held at any time on consent of all the Directors without any previous notice.

(a) At all meetings of the Directors six shall form a quorum.

14. Calls on stock may be made by the Directors from time to time, as they shall see fit, at intervals of not less than thirty days; provided that no calls shall be made at any one time without the consent of the Shareholders for more than ten per centum of the amount subscribed by each Shareholder.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

15. The House Committee shall act as an Election Committee as hereinafter provided and shall have the control and management of the Club House and the administration of the Rules and Regulations of the Association, but shall refer any financial matter to the Directors. They shall elect a Chairman from amongst their number, and shall continue to act until their successors are elected. Any vacancies occurring during the year may be filled by the remaining members of the Committee. The President and Vice-President of the Association shall be ex-officio members of the House Committee.

16. The House Committee may at any time reserve the whole or any part of the Club House or Grounds for any purpose approved by it, and while any portion of the Club House or Grounds is so reserved it shall not be used by the members of the Association except upon the terms indicated by the House Committee.

MEETINGS OF HOUSE COMMITTEE

17. Meetings of the House Committee shall be called by the Secretary at any time on the request of any member of the Committee. Notice of any meeting shall be mailed by the Secretary to each member of the Committee not less than twelve hours before the time fixed for the meeting, but a meeting of the Committee may be held at any time on consent of all the members without any previous notice.

(a). At all meetings of the Committee four shall form a quorum.

SECRETARY-TREASURER

18. The Secretary-Treasurer shall see that all fees, charges and subscriptions are regularly collected, have charge of all the funds of the Association and keep a regular account thereof subject to monthly examination and audit by the two auditors, and he shall pay out the same from time to time under the general directions of the Board or any Committee thereof, by cheque or other order, countersigned by the President or Vice-President or in their absence by a Director specially appointed by the Board of Directors for that purpose. He shall also keep a record of all business transacted at the meetings of the Association, Board of Directors, or House Committee or any sub-committee thereof; shall notify applicants for admission of their election, and shall do and execute such writings, acts, matters and things as may be required under any statute, or as he may be officially instructed and authorized to execute and perform. He shall have the custody of the corporate seal of the Association, but the seal shall only be affixed to any instrument or written document so as to legally bind the Association as a corporation, when and as the same is attested by the President or the Vice-President.

AUDITORS

19. Two auditors shall be appointed by resolution at the annual general meeting of the Association; they shall hold office until the next annual meeting unless previously removed by a resolution of the shareholders in general meeting. The Directors may fill any casual vacancy in the office of auditor, but while any such vacancy continues the surviving or continuing auditor or auditors may act and any auditor shall be eligible for re-appointment.

They shall examine and audit the accounts and books, and all documents bearing on the finances of the Associaation once in each month, and shall certify and submit a full and detailed statement of the affairs of the Association up to the 31st day of October in each year, which will be deemed to be the close of the financial year, to the Shareholders at their annual general meetings. The remuneration of the the auditors shall be fixed by the Shareholders in general meeting except that the remuneration of any auditor appointed to fill any casual vacancy may be fixed by the Directors.

SOCIAL MEMBERS

20. Any Shareholder desiring to avail himself of the benefits and advantages of the social features of the Association shall apply under the Rules and Regulations to be admitted as a social member thereof, subject to payment of fees, etc., as provided by said Rules and Regulations.

21. No Shareholder, unless he is also a social member of the Association in good standing, shall have the right to use or enjoy the privileges of the Club House and grounds.

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

22. Every person, not already a Shareholder, desiring to become a social member of the Association in addition to complying with and observing the Rules and Regulations as to social membership, shall subscribe for one share of the capital stock of the Association, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, namely:—

(a) The holder shall not sell or otherwise dispose of the said share so long as he remains a social member of the Association.

(b) On the holder withdrawing, resigning or ceasing to be a social member of the Association or being expelled therefrom, the said share shall become forfeited and shall revert to the Association.

The Directors are hereby authorized to allot to all persons so applying for shares one share of stock in pursuance of and subject to the conditions of By-law No. 22, and to set aside and apply $1.00, part of the first year's subscription of each member, in payment of the said share.

SUBSIDIARY CLUBS

23. For the purpose of carrying out the objects of their charter, the social members of the Association may form themselves into Subsidiary Clubs for the promotion of any particular amusement or object that can be carried on under the charter of the Association; and on appointing their own officers may, subject to the approval of the Directors, make such rules and regulations for their government as shall not be at variance with the said charter or the By-laws, Rules or Regulations of the Association.

24. The Subsidiary Clubs at present organized in connection with the Association—The Victoria Club, The Toronto Curling Club, The Victoria Lawn Bowling Club, The Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, and The Victoria Whist Club—are all recognized as coming under By-law No. 23.

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

25. Any amendments to these By-laws shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Shareholders present at a general or special meeting called for the purpose.

26. No amendment to the By-laws shall be voted on unless a copy thereof shall have been furnished to the Secretary at least two weeks before the annual or any special meeting of the Association called for the purpose of considering the same; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause the proposed amendment to be printed and distributed to the members at the same time as the notice of the annual or special meeting is given. These restrictions shall not apply to any amendment of a proposed amendment of the By-laws when being considered by the Association.

27. All former By-laws inconsistent with the provisions of the foregoing By-laws are hereby repealed. In respect to all questions of the construction of the By-laws, the decision of the Board of Directors once made thereon shall be final until rescinded by the Board itself or by the Association, at any general or special meeting.

Rules and Regulations

1. The social organization of the members of the Association shall be known as The Victoria Club, and the buildings and premises of the Association shall be known as The Club.

The President, Vice-President, Secreretary and House Committee of the Association shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and House Committee of The Victoria Club.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

2. Every Shareholder or other person applying for admission as a social member of the Association must be proposed by one member and seconded by another, to both of whom he must be personally known. The candidate's name, profession, place of business (if any) and residence, together with the names of his proposer and seconder, in the hand-writing of one or both, must be entered on a card provided for that purpose and delivered to the Secretary.

3. The names of all candidates shall be submitted to the House Committee at its next meeting and if approved of by it shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Club House for at least one week.

4. Upon the written demand of any member of the Association during such week the application of any candidate shall be reconsidered and balloted upon by the House Committee at its next meeting. In such a case two negative votes shall exclude.

5. If the application is again approved of by the House Committee the candidate shall be deemed to be duly elected a social member of the Association.

6. If there is no written demand for a reconsideration or ballot the candidate shall at the expiration of a week from the date when his name was posted in the Club House be deemed to be duly elected a social member of the Association.

7. The Secretary shall keep a record of all applications for membership in a book kept for that purpose and shall show therein how such application was disposed of.

8. Members shall notify the Secretary from time to time of any change in their address, and any notice sent by mail to any member addressed to him at the address given in his card of application, or in the event of any change of address at the last address given by him to the Secretary shall be deemed to be sufficient notice to such member of any matter stated in the notice.

9. On the election of each new member the Secretary shall notify him of his election by registered letter, furnish him with a printed copy of the By-laws, Rules and Regulations, request him to subscribe for one share of the capital stock of the Association in accordance with By-law No. 22, and to remit the amount of his entrance fee (if any) and annual subscription to the Treasurer; and until these conditions are complied with he shall not be entitled to the privileges of a social member.

10. Should any new member neglect to subscribe for one share of the capital stock of the Association and to pay his entrance fee (if any) and annual subscription within two months after notice of his election has been mailed to him, he shall be deemed to have forfeited his membership and shall cease to be a member of the Association. A notice specially calling his attention to this rule shall be mailed to each new member in default at the expiration of one month after the date when notice of his election was mailed to him. The House Committee may, upon application to it, allow any candidate for good cause, to withdraw his application for membership within one month after his election and, upon the application being withdrawn, the candidate shall cease to be a member of the Association and shall not be liable for any fees.

MEMBERS — FEES

11. There shall be five classes of members:

(1) Honorary Members.

(2) Life Members.

(3) Members resident in the City of Toronto or within fifteen miles thereof.

(4) Non-resident Members who reside more than 15 miles from, and whose place of business is not in the City of Toronto, and whose temporary residence in the City does not exceed more than three months during any year.

(5) Privileged Members.

HONORARY MEMBERS

12. The Shareholders at any general meeting or at any special meeting called for the purpose and the Directors by an unanimous vote of the whole Board, may from time to time create any member who has rendered important or distinguished services to the Association or any clergyman in charge of any city church an honorary member of the Association for his life or for such time or period of years as to the Shareholders or Directors shall seem meet, and every such honorary member shall be exempt from payment of any entrance fee in respect of such honorary membership and also from payment of any annual subscription. In all other respects he shall be subject to the By-laws, Rules and Regulations of the Association as in the case of an ordinary resident member.

LIFE MEMBERS

13. Any resident member of the Association in good standing may become a life member thereof by commuting his annual subscriptions by the payment of $200 in cash. If such payment is made at the time of his election as a member the payment of an entrance fee shall be dispensed with.

14. There shall not be more than thirty life members of the Association at any time and in the event of there being more than thirty applications for life memberships the applications shall be granted in the order in which they are made as vacancies occur.

RESIDENT MEMBERS

15. The resident members shall not exceed four hundred in number, and each resident member shall pay an entrance fee of $25 at the time of his election and an annual subscription of $30 payable in advance, on November 1st in each year; but if the annual subscription be paid on or before January 1st, the Association will accept $25 in full thereof. In the case of resident members elected on or after the first day of March the subscription shall be at the rate of two dollars and a half per month to the first day of November following.

16. Any member of the Association removing from the city and not intending to avail himself of the privileges of the Club, may, upon notifying the Secretary in writing continue his membership therein upon payment of five dollars per annum. But if any such member, during the year, uses the Club, he shall pay the same annual fee and be classed as a non-resident member under Rule 18.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS

17. Non-resident members are subject to election in the same manner as resident members. The annual subscription of non-resident members shall be ten dollars, payable in advance on the first day of November in each year, but if the same be paid on or before the first day of January following, the sum of eight dollars shall be accepted in full thereof.

A non-resident member shall pay an entrance fee of $10.

18. Any non-resident member desiring to become a resident member may do so by permission of the House Committee on payment of the difference between the fees payable by a resident and non-resident member, and any non-resident member coming to reside in the City of Toronto, or within 15 miles thereof, shall not be permitted to use the Club until he has become a resident member.

19. The Directors may at any time dispense with the payment of an entrance fee by any new member.

PRIVILEGED MEMBERS

20. At the request of a member, the House Committee may admit to the privileges of the Association for a period not exceeding two weeks, any stranger visiting Toronto. The names of all privileged members, and the duration of such privileges, must be entered in the visitors' book by the member introducing them. A member introducing a friend as a privileged member shall be responsible for any dues contracted by him.

21. Privileged members are amenable to the Rules and Regulations, but are entitled to the privileges of the Association during their membership without payment of an entrance fee or subscription. They have no right to introduce any friend, attend meetings, or take part in or in any way interfere with the management of the Association.

22. Any member may introduce one or more of his friends to the visitors' room and to breakfast, lunch or dinner and the name of each such friend shall be entered in the visitors' book.

23. When the visitors' room is already occupied by members and their friends, or is reserved for any meeting, visitors may be introduced to the large room down stairs.

24. Guests of any member with whom they have breakfasted, lunched or dined shall have all the privileges of the Association while such member is with them.

25. Except for the purpose of breakfast, lunch or dinner no member shall introduce any visitor being a resident of the City of Toronto to the privileges of the Association on any day or during any hours when by the Liquor License Act in force in Ontario the sale of liquor is prohibited in hotels in the City of Toronto.

No member shall introduce the same person as a guest oftener than once a month.

PAYMENT OF FEES

26. Members shall have notices posted to their addresses not later than two weeks before the first day of November, notifying them to pay their annual subscriptions. Those members whose subscriptions have not been paid by the 15th day of December shall be sent a second notice.

27. The name of every member failing to pay his annual subscription on or before February 1st shall be posted in the Club House for a month, and if the subscription of any such member be not paid within such month, he shall then cease to be a member and his name shall be erased from the books of the Association. Upon such explanation being offered as may be deemed satisfactory, and upon his subscription being paid, the House Committee may restore such member to membership in the Association.

28. Any member whose name is posted for non-payment of his subscription shall not be entitled to any of the privileges of the Association until his subscription be paid.

29. Any member whose subscription and debts to the Association are paid, but not otherwise, shall be at liberty to resign his membership on his written application delivered to the Secretary prior to the 1st November in any year, and any member who shall so resign shall cease to be a member of the Association.

The House Committee may permit any member, within a reasonable time, to withdraw his resignation.

INFRINGEMENT OF RULES

30. In case of the infringement of any of these Rules or Regulations or of any other impropriety on the part of a member, it shall be the duty of the House Committee to take notice of the matter; and any member guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, either within or without the Club, or of transgressing the Rules or Regulations, or of such behavior as would be likely to bring the Association into disrepute, may be expelled or suspended by the House Committee, when his privileges as a member of the Association shall cease and he shall not be allowed to use the Club during the period of his suspension.

The use of coarse language, swearing, noisy or quarrelsome behavior that would be disagreeable to other members, and drinking to excess, will be considered ungentlemanly conduct, and will bring the offender under the operation of this rule.

31. The Secretary shall forthwith notify such member of his expulsion or suspension by registered letter and the name of any member expelled by the House Committee shall at the expiration of seven days from the date of the mailing of such notice be erased from the books of the Association.

32. If a member so expelled or suspended shall appear before the House Committee and offer such explanations or apologies as are deemed satisfactory, that Committee may restore the member to membership in the Association.

33. An expelled or suspended member shall have the right to appeal to the Directors, but notice of such appeal must be delivered to the Secretary within seven days of notice of his expulsion or suspension. The Directors on considering the matter may restore such expelled or suspended member to membership in the Association.
